Missouri State University is a community of people with respect for diversity. The University emphasizes the dignity and equality common to all persons and adheres to a strict nondiscrimination policy regarding the treatment of individual faculty, staff, and students. In accord with federal law and applicable Missouri statutes, the University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action/Minority/Female/Veterans/Disability Employer and Institution. In addition, the University does not discriminate on any basis (including, but not limited to, political affiliation and sexual orientation) not related to the applicable educational requirements for students or the applicable job requirements for employees.

This policy shall not be interpreted in a manner as to violate the legal rights of religious organizations or military organizations associated with the Armed Forces of the United States of America.

The University maintains a grievance procedure incorporating due process available to any person who believes he or she has been discriminated against. Missouri State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Inquiries concerning the grievance procedure, Affirmative Action Plan, or compliance with federal and state laws and guidelines should be addressed to Wes Pratt, Equal Opportunity Officer, Office for Institutional Equity and Compliance, Missouri State University, PCOB Suite 111, 901 South National Avenue, Springfield MO 65897.

PLEASE NOTE: When we have an opening, it is essential that we be able to contact you immediately for placement consideration. It is important that you notify the Greenwood office (417 836-5124) of any change in name, address, phone, contact person or student status. If we are unable to contact you, your application may be dropped.
